STATUTORY RULES 2008

S.R. No. 147/2008

County Court Act 1958

County Court (Chapter I Amendment No. 25)
Rules 2008

A majority of the Judges of the County Court makes the following Rules:

1 Object

The object of these Rules is to substitute an increased scale of costs to the County Court Rules of Procedure in Civil Proceedings 1999.

2 Authorising provisions

These Rules are made under section 78 of the County Court Act 1958 and all other enabling powers.

3 Commencement

These Rules come into operation on 1 January 2009.

4 Appendix A substituted

For Appendix A to the County Court Rules of Procedure in Civil Proceedings 1999¹ substitute—

'APPENDIX A

SCALE OF COSTS

Scale of fees and costs to be paid to Counsel and Practitioners between party and party and between Practitioner and Client.

The Judge, Registrar or other taxing officer shall have full discretion to allow any fee, cost or disbursement in full, or in part.

In appropriate cases should the Judge, Registrar or other taxing officer consider the fee, cost or disbursement provided by the scale to be inadequate to compensate for the work actually done, the Judge, Registrar or other taxing officer may allow an appropriate fee which in the circumstances is considered to be fair and reasonable.

Notes

- A. This item should begin with a short statement of—
- (i) the main issues;
 - (ii) any particular difficulties of fact or law;
 - (iii) any special skill, knowledge or responsibility required
- B. This should be followed not by a chronological narrative, but by an analysis of the work done separated on the main headings appropriate to the subject matter. Under a heading, for example, "Attendances on and correspondence with client" there should be included a statement of the number of attendances on the client, the total time occupied and the number of letters sent, but not the details of every attendance or of every letter.

However, where objection is lodged to the stated number of letters or attendances, the practitioner lodging the bill for taxation must remove from his or her file the attendance notes and copy letters claimed, and be in a position to produce same in chronological order at the taxation.

If a Judge or Registrar in respect of a party-party bill of costs or the Taxing Master on the taxation of a solicitor-client bill of costs considers that the maximum amount provided for in this item is not sufficient remuneration for the care and conduct including skill and responsibility involved throughout the course

39. In addition to the allowance of any disbursement hereinbefore provided, the Registrar or other taxing officer may allow any disbursements necessarily or properly made in the course of the proceeding.

Rating Appeals

1. As to all items and charges under this heading, as far as practicable Scale "A" shall apply where the annual value appealed against is up to and including $1000 and Scale "B" where the annual value appealed against is over $1000.
2. Whenever any rating appeal case is, in the opinion of the presiding Judge, of such a special important nature that the fees above specified would not be a fair and reasonable remuneration for the trouble, care, skill and expense necessarily involved in the proper preparation and conduct of such appeal case he or she may allow such lump sum, as in his or her opinion, would amount to such fair and reasonable remuneration.

Providing that nothing hereinstated with regard to costs of rating appeals shall prevent the Judge from making such order as to costs of fixing the same at such sum as he or she shall think fit.

Witnesses' Expenses

Witnesses giving evidence in an expert or professional capacity, $157.00–$313.00 per hour or part thereof, not exceeding $1952.00 per day.

Persons not referred to in the preceding paragraph who are engaged in business as principals on their own behalf—$326.00 per half day or part thereof but not in any event to exceed $585.00 in any one day.

Other witnesses—$97.00 per hour, provided that a witness who receives wages, salary, remuneration or fees may be allowed the amount actually lost by reason of attendance not exceeding $585.00 per day.

Travelling expenses, if witnesses residence or place of business is more than seven kilometres from place of hearing, the sum reasonably and actually paid.

Witnesses attending in more than one case will be entitled to a proportionate part only in each case.

Professional, scientific or expert witnesses, for time necessarily occupied in qualifying to give evidence, to be allowed such reasonable sum as was necessarily and properly incurred.

Meals and Accommodation of Witnesses

A reasonable sum to be fixed by the Registrar.

In cases in which it is considered reasonable to bring heavy or bulky articles to court or the precincts of the court as exhibits or for inspection by Judge or Jury, a reasonable sum may be allowed for costs of conveyance or transport.
