About Conference

The ninth National Access to Justice and Pro Bono Conference is coming to Melbourne on 29 – 31 October 2025. The Law Council of Australia, Law Institute of Victoria and the Australian Pro Bono Centre will unite to deliver the latest perspectives and ideas on access to justice and pro bono matters to support society's most vulnerable.

The event brings together more than 300 members from the legal assistance sector, including private practitioners and representatives of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services, Community Legal Centres, Legal Aid Commissions and Family Violence Prevention Legal Services. This conference is supported by a 12-month comprehensive multi-channel marketing campaign amplified across the Law Council of Australia, Law Institute of Victoria and Australian Pro Bono Centre channels.

Available Plenary Sessions

Last updated 10 July 2025

Session Title and Description	Speakers
Plenary 3: Justice 2040: The future of access to justice lawyering This dynamic panel explores how access to justice legal practice will transform over the next two decades. They examine the role of digital innovation in reshaping service delivery, and share insights on emerging workforce wellbeing strategies, collaborative wraparound services and novel impact lawyering models. Featuring diverse perspectives from regulation, community legal centers, and legal technology platforms, speakers will analyse both macro industry trends and micro practice-level changes. Discover how technology, generational shifts, and evolving client and workforce needs are revolutionising legal service accessibility and effectiveness.	Panel: Fiona McLeay, Chief Executive Officer and Commissioner, Victorian Legal Services Board Camilla Pandolfini, Chief Executive Officer, Redfern Legal CentreDominic Woolrych, Chief Executive Officer, LawPath	Moderator: Chris Povey, Chief Executive Officer, Justice Connect
Plenary 5: Beyond the pacific: Perspectives from the US social contract crisis Join Lynne Haultain, Executive Director of the Victoria Law Foundation and formerly of the ABC, for a candid conversation drawing on her experiences in Atlanta, Georgia during the 2024 US election. The social contract in the US is in tatters, with all too obvious consequences for community cohesion and the rule of law. This session offers reflections on the peculiarities and tragedy of the US, with some food for thought on implications for Australia’s civic engagement.	Lynne Haultain, Executive Director, Victoria Law Foundation
Plenary 7: Reimagining Systems: Storytelling as a tool for Justice A Kaytetye woman inviting you to step outside traditional frameworks where stories hold the power to transform systems and shift mindsets. With years of work across narrative change, economic justice, and truth-telling, Rona demonstrates how storytelling becomes both a site of healing and a mechanism for systemic change, offering new pathways toward justice grounded in collective memory and Indigenous wisdom.	Rona Glynn-McDonald, Director &amp; Strategic Advisor, Common Ground First Nations
