Who are we?

About LIV Young Lawyers

---

The LIV Young Lawyers is a dynamic group established to enhance the legal skills, knowledge and professional networks of members in the early stages of career development.

Membership of LIV Young Lawyers is free to all eligible LIV members who are:

- Practitioners under the age of 36;
- Practitioners over the age of 36 with less than six years practical experience (regardless of age); and
- Law Students, Law Graduates, Legal Trainees, Practical/Supervised Legal Trainees.

Any LIV Young Lawyers member is eligible to join an LIV Young Lawyers committee.

LIV Young Lawyers aims to:

1. Enhance the legal skills, knowledge and professional networks of members in the early stages of career development by:
  - a. Developing and hosting a variety of professional development events
  - b. Contributing content to LIV publications including the Young Lawyers blog and Law Institute Journal, as appropriate
  - c. Running a variety of social events throughout the year
  - d. Collaborating with external stakeholders with mutual interests (eg. the Junior Bar)
2. Maintain and share its knowledge of current issues facing the legal industry relevant to Young Lawyers by:
  - a. Hosting events allowing external stakeholders to speak before LIV Young Lawyers members;
  - b. Attending the meetings of other relevant LIV committees upon invitation;
  - c. Promoting and attending other LIV events as appropriate from time to time
3. Promote the role of lawyers generally, and, young lawyers throughout Victoria in particular;
4. Provide support and assistance to the LIV and its other sections as requested; and
5. Support the activities of the LIV Council as requested, ensuring a strong voice for Young Lawyers; and
6. Develop an annual engagement strategy for members of the Young Lawyers section, leveraging LIV communication channels.

The LIV Young Lawyers' committees are integral to achieving each of these goals and priorities.

How do we work? About the LIV Young Lawyers Committees

LIV Young Lawyers' committees provide a fantastic opportunity for emerging, graduate and aspiring lawyers to get involved, learn new skills, develop networks, express fresh ideas on legal and social issues for the benefit of the profession and the community. The committees are a significant resource to the LIV membership, and their overall performance is integral to the success of LIV Young Lawyers.

The LIV Young Lawyers committee structure consists of an Executive Committee and the following sub-committees:

- Community Issues
- Editorial
- Later Lawyers Network
- Law Reform
- Professional Development
- Social
- Later Lawyers Network
- Regional and Suburban Young Lawyers Network
- Legal Innovation and Technology

The Executive Committee and other committees meet every six weeks for an hour meeting conducted virtually. Involvement in the Executive Committee and the Regional and Suburban Young Lawyers representative is limited to elected positions only. All LIV Young Lawyers members are welcome to join any of the other LIV Young Lawyers' committees.

The following information explains the overarching purposes of each committee as well as providing an outline of events, projects and activity opportunities available in 2021.

What are the roles and responsibilities of Committee members?

LIV Young Lawyers committee members are expected to:

- Attend every committee meeting, or send an apology at least 24 hours before if unable to attend;
- Promote LIV Young Lawyers activities and events, and the value of LIV membership throughout their professional networks;
- Contribute to activities, events, project related to that committee in collaboration with the Chair/Co-Chairs and Young Lawyers Manager; and (most importantly)
- Have fun!

LIV YL Executive Committee

An overview

The Executive Committee sets the direction and agenda for the activities of the LIV Young Lawyers. It plans, projects and brainstorms ideas for the benefit of the membership and decides matters of policy affecting the Young Lawyers Section. At various times, the Executive Committee also advocates for the rights of its members, and lobbies on general topics of relevance to the Young Lawyers members.

Each Young Lawyers committee is represented on the Executive Committee by its chair or co-chairs. The Executive Committee also works closely with representatives of the LIV Council, the Victorian Bar, Australian Young Lawyers Committee, the Australian Law Students' Association and other relevant bodies. The Executive Committee also includes the following positions:

- President
- Vice-President
- Immediate Past President;
- LIV Council Liaison;
- Young Lawyers Regional Representative;
- Young Lawyers Suburban Representative; and
- Later Lawyers Network representative.

Leadership of the Executive Committee is provided by the LIV Young Lawyers President and Vice-President.

Key responsibilities

- Set the strategic direction of LIV Young Lawyers;
- Oversee, support and promote the wide portfolio of events and activities LIV Young Lawyers;
- Deliver the Annual Report in late November; and
- Deliver the LIV Young Lawyers AGM by sourcing a guest speaker and arranging post AGM networking drinks.

Please see Appendix 1 for the list of 2021 LIV Young Lawyers Executive Committee members and their contact details.

Community Issues Committee

The Community Issues Committee partners with various charitable organisations to help support initiatives that involve LIV members and benefits the broader community. The Community Issues Committee plans activities and provides opportunities for Young Lawyers to engage with the community on issues affecting the community.

2021 portfolio of opportunities:

- Mental Health and Wellbeing
- Diversity and Inclusion
- Equality in the legal industry
- Indigenous representation
- Accessibility of Legal Services

Key responsibilities

- Build on the success of the 2020 engagement virtually and in person when government restrictions permit.

Social Committee

The Social Committee creates opportunities for members to meet their peers and form a network of contacts through fun, engaging and relevant events. It offers a relaxed and informal outlet for members to make new friends and share experiences.

2021 portfolio of events and engagement opportunities

This year, there is a wide range of social and networking events for the committee to deliver including quarterly networking in an informal context, games nights through winter and the LIV Young Lawyers Trivia Night in late April. Other initiative may include

- Mentoring
- Social gatherings
- Assisting other committee's functions
- Virtual engagement

Key responsibilities

- Organisation, delivery and promotion of regular social events (includes sourcing venues and liaising with other external stakeholders to organise joint events)
- Project management and event delivery, including partner identification and engagement (in collaboration with LIV Young Lawyers Executive Committee).

Editorial Committee

The Editorial Committee is responsible for creating interesting, relevant and engaging content for the LIV Young Lawyers Blog, social media, Young Lawyers Newsletter, LIV Podcast and the Law Institute Journal.

2021 portfolio of events and engagement opportunities

The Editorial Committee will produce at least one blog post per month, which may be sourced from either Committee members or external stakeholders. Content may include:

- LIV Young Lawyers reports / committee updates;
- LIV Young Lawyers event summaries with key takeaway messages and quotes from speakers
- News regarding LIV Young Lawyers and photos;
- Opinion pieces;
- Career advice;
- Interviews;
- A series of posts following a common theme (e.g. 5 pieces of advice for Young Lawyers from 5 different Managing Partners);
- Brief analysis of an interesting area of law reform (e.g. modern slavery, in collaboration with the LIV Young Lawyers Law Reform Committee);
- A list of your favorite city cheap lunch eats or best happy hour specials; and
- Anything else you think is interesting and relevant!

Blog posts will be promoted on social media and throughout the broader LIV network.

The November edition of the Law Institute Journal will include the Young Lawyers Journal as a special feature. This will be instead of 3 separate Young Lawyers Journal editions throughout the year. The Law Institute Journal will be around 10 articles of 1000 words long ideally around a topic to be determined by the Editorial Committee.

The LIV Young Lawyers Executive Committee will also contribute a monthly column to the Law Institute Journal which the Editorial Committee will help facilitate. Keep an eye out for this column which will showcase the amazing work the LIV Young Lawyers community does!

Key responsibilities

- Brainstorming topics and sourcing contributors;
- Writing content for LIV publications including the Young Lawyers Blog, Young Lawyers Journal and Law Institute Journal; and
- Sourcing legal professionals to interview for the LIV Podcast.

Law Reform Committee

The Law Reform Committee monitors and undertakes law reform projects, responds to calls for submissions, and works collaboratively with other LIV Legal Policy Sections, to publish fact sheets and information on changes to legislation of relevance to new lawyers and contentious social issues.

2021 portfolio of events and engagement opportunities

This year, the Committee will promote the overarching principle of social responsibility and advance its thematic projects on human rights, modern slavery and waste. The Committee will continue to advocate for and contribute to legal submissions of relevance to early career lawyers (in collaboration with the Professional Development Committee).

Throughout the year the Committee will actively collaborate with senior subject-matter experts via the LIV Legal Policy Sections to develop and hone Young Lawyers members' law reform and advocacy skills, such as collaborating on legal submissions, attending meetings and combined networking events.

Current sub-committees and groups:

- Human Rights (HR) sub-committee
- Modern Slavery (MS) subcommittee
- Sustainability sub-committee

Key responsibilities

- Advocating on behalf of Young Lawyers members on issues of that concern, affect or interest our membership through the preparation of submissions;
- Develop strategic relationships with LIV Legal Policy Committees and actively promote LIV Young Lawyers involvement wherever appropriate; and
- Contribute content for the Young Lawyers Blog and Young Lawyers Journal on matters of law reform and policy of interest to Young Lawyers.

Later Lawyers Network

The Later Lawyers Network was established to bring together, support and promote the growing number of mature age law graduates and lawyers within the profession. It focuses on supporting lawyers and law students who come to the law as a later or subsequent career through providing advice, support and education about admission pathways and employment opportunities. It achieves this by promoting of the advantages of later lawyers to law firms and potential employers through various social and networking opportunities.

2021 portfolio of events and engagement opportunities

The Later Lawyers Network will continue to advocate for the enhancement of existing professional development activities and services to ensure they cater for later lawyers. This will include a panel discussion at the LIV Careers Fair and collaboration with university later law student networks and mentoring opportunities. The Network will also maintain its focus on mental health and wellbeing supports for its members, together with advancing a strategy to reposition the value of later lawyers with reference to post-qualification legal experience.

Key responsibilities

- Develop and deliver services aligned with supporting later lawyers' mental health and wellbeing in the law;

- Collaborate with the PDC to ensure that Later Lawyers interests are represented across LIV Young Lawyers events; and
- Develop strategic partnerships with university later law student groups.

Professional Development Committee

The Professional Development Committee is responsible for delivering programs, seminars and activities to help Young Lawyers develop their legal and professional skills. It provides career information and events for students, graduates and new lawyers, as well as providing various opportunities for Young Lawyers to develop their public speaking and presentation skills speaking at events wherever possible.

2021 portfolio of events and engagement opportunities

This dynamic committee has a range of events and member services it will deliver this year, including the LIV Legal Careers Fair, to be held on Thursday, 9 July 2020 and the Victorian Golden Gavel Competition, to be held in late-August, as well as the development of key LIV Young Lawyers seminars including the “Your Future in the Law” and the Seasonal Clerkship Workshop. The Professional Development Committee will again support the LIV Mentoring program and contribute to legal submissions of relevance to early career lawyers (in collaboration with the Law Reform Committee).

Key responsibilities

- Careers and employability
- Mentoring
- Chairing LIV CPD Sessions
- Victorian Golden Gavel Competition, mid-August
- Publications

Regional and Suburban Young Lawyers Network

The Regional and Suburban Young Lawyers is made up of 'Young Lawyer Law Association' representatives across 16 regions. These representatives engage with and support members by ensuring access to legal resources and CPD in regional and suburban areas, attracting practitioners to these areas and creating mentoring and networking opportunities for new lawyers working in suburban or regional areas.

This group meets for a face-to-face convening annually with an additional three meetings held via videoconference to discuss issues affecting students and young lawyers in regional and suburban Victoria. Each representative also delivers social and networking events for members in their respective areas.

The Young Lawyers Executive Committee's Regional and Suburban Representatives jointly lead this group.

Please refer to Appendix 2 for a diagram and contacts list for the Suburban & Country Law Associations and Regional and Suburban Young Lawyers Representatives.

2021 portfolio of events and engagement opportunities

In the first half of 2021, the LIV will host its annual Conference of Council meeting. Regional and Suburban Young Lawyers Representatives will be invited to participate in this annual convening of leaders in the legal industry, to connect and share their experiences, hear and recognise each other's successes, and identify opportunities for engagement in their regions.

Regional and Suburban Young Lawyer Month (RSYL Month) is traditionally held in October each year, giving students and young lawyers the opportunity to get together and celebrate what's great about studying and working in regional and suburban Victoria. Past events have included trivia, murder mystery, winery tours, lawn bowls, networking dinners and ten pin bowling. Each suburb and region is encouraged to support their Young Lawyers' representatives in hosting an event, both practically and, where possible, financially.

Young Lawyers will provide all Regional and Suburban Representatives with a detailed schedule of deadlines to plan for their RSYL Month at a later stage this year.

Key responsibilities

- Represent both Young Lawyers and their respective Law Association at the 2021 LIV Conference of Council event, utilising the event to build strong connections with association committees;
- Organisation, delivery and promotion of RSYL events (each representative is responsible for their region / suburb's event). Marketing assistance and event advice provided by the LIV; and
- Develop and implement a strategy to increase engagement with these members.

Legal Innovation and Technology Committee

The Legal Innovation and Technology is the newest committee to be created. Born out of the COVID-19 pandemic when it was identified there was a gap in Young Lawyers to foster innovation and technology advancements in the legal industry for our emerging professionals.

In 2020, the committee was established as a working group of students and younger professionals wanting to learn more about the impact technology has had on the legal industry and its ability to enhance and increase accessibility as well. Innovation is more than the use of technology but rather a new way to operate and deliver legal services. The Young Lawyers Legal Innovation and Technology committee aim to be change makers and foster a community of innovators within the legal sector.

2021 portfolio of events and engagement opportunities

- CPD engagement and sessions
- Mentoring
- Think Tank creation
- Contribute to the advancement of legal start ups
- Publications

Key responsibilities

- Create a community of like-minded individuals that challenge the norm of legal services and the delivery of same.
- Generate ideas that will impact the legal industry
- Partner with start-ups and innovative organisations to promote advancements in technology and changes in operations
- Educate up-coming legal professionals

Young Lawyers Advisors

Young Lawyers Advisors are two elected positions that oversee and assist all committees in the creation, development and delivery of events, engagement, publications and overall brand of the Young Lawyers.

2021 portfolio of events and engagement opportunities

- Social Media
- Branding opportunities
- Internal and External communications
- Marketing Research
- Mentoring
- Governance

Key responsibilities

- To provide objective feedback and suggestions to committees including Executive committee.
- Provide support and recommendations where requested
- Investigate and research as directed
